Murmansk City Tour + Northern Light Hunting

Start your day with a delicious breakfast and get ready for a visit to the iconic Alyosha Monument, a powerful tribute to the heroes who defended the Arctic during World War II. Explore the Lenin Icebreaker Museum Discover the world’s first nuclear-powered icebreaker, Lenin. Learn about its fascinating history and Arctic missions. ?? Note: Entry tickets are required at an additional cost. The icebreaker is closed on Mondays and Tuesdays. View the “Lamb’s Forehead” Relic Monument (summer only) Admire this incredible 2.5-billion-year-old rocky ledge, a rare geological formation known locally as Baran Lby – a unique piece of Earth's ancient history. Inspection of the Nuclear Submarine “Kursk” Cabin Get a closer look at the reconstructed cabin of the tragic Kursk submarine and understand its historical significance. Visit the Lighthouse Memorial Pay homage at the Lighthouse, a solemn memorial dedicated to the sailors who lost their lives during peacetime.Stroll along the Kola Bay Embankment Wrap up your tour with a peaceful walk along the ice-free Kola Bay, where you’ll enjoy a beautiful panoramic view of the city and the serene waters. In the evening The Northern Lights usually appear above the clouds, so we always consider the weather forecast, cloud cover, and air mass movements before planning the trip. Recommended Stay Duration To increase your chances of seeing the Aurora, we recommend staying for 3 to 4 days (at least 3 full evenings) so we can select the best possible night for the tour. Careful Monitoring Before Departure Before heading out, we closely monitor the aurora forecast. • If the forecast is unfavorable, we simply don’t go. • If we believe there’s a chance, we go aurora hunting! If we don’t see the Northern Lights during the trip, you pay 1000 rubles less per person. A Magical Winter Adventure Even if the Aurora doesn’t appear, you’ll still enjoy an exciting winter experience with our friendly guide, who will take beautiful photos of you amidst the snowy Arctic landscape. ?? No 100% Guarantee—But Our Best Effort The Northern Lights are a natural phenomenon, so while we can’t guarantee their appearance, we’ll do everything possible to catch them. Flexible Reattempt Option If we miss the Aurora on
